General Information:

The National Park Service is looking for that special volunteer that likes interacting with people and is a safe driver to provide general shuttle service for fellow volunteers and park staff during the Presidential Inauguration. We are looking for volunteers that are familiar with Washington D.C. streets and have a great driving record. These volunteer shuttle drivers will pick up staff at designated locations and drop them off on the National Mall.

Volunteer Position: Shuttle Driver

We are looking for volunteers with great driving records to drive 15-passenger staff shuttles during the Presidential Inauguration. Primary duties will be to drive staff shuttles short distances between sites along the National Mall. General information about the park, the city, and the Inauguration events will be provided at a volunteer orientation. Please be prepared for large crowds in the hundreds of thousands. Meals and drinks will be provided. A current valid driver's license is required as is a good driving record.

Available Shifts:

- January 21, 2013: 5:00 am - 9:00 am
- January 21, 2013: 9:00 am - 1:00 pm
- January 21, 2013: 1:00 pm - 5:30 pm

Uniform Requirements:

All volunteers will wear NPS-issued vests for identification. Please dress appropriately for cold temperatures and inclement weather.

To Apply:

Please email the following information to NPSVIPInauguration2013@gmail.com:

- Name
- Email address
- Phone number
- Preferred day and shift
- Description of any relevant driving experience
- If you are a current NPS volunteer, please note which park.

Benefit to the National Park Service:

The volunteers that participate in our shuttle service will ensure that National Park Service staff and volunteers get to the areas along the National Mall safely and in a timely manner for park operations to help visitors during the inauguration.
